Tuesday 12 May, 2015

Tritons.co.uk make shopping for that perfect Father's Day gift a cinch thanks to their new Father's Day gift guide.

With this year's Father's Day just a few short weeks away, the hunt is on to find the best and most unique Father's Day gifts out there. Forget socks; forget ties; forget old school aftershave, because thanks to Tritons.co.uk, loving sons and daughters can pick the best Father's Day gifts available to buy.

Tritons.co.uk realised there was a real gap in the market for a great gift guide specifically targeted for Father's Day presents. A company spokesperson for Tritons.co.uk said:

"Every year it's the same: sons and daughters all over the UK leave it to the last minute to grab a present for their dads. Last-minute shopping often results in gifts that are uninspired, and let's face it, a little bit boring. We believe that dads deserve better than a bottle of beer or a bar of chocolate! That's the reason a great Father's Day gift guide that highlights present ideas for dads of all ages and styles is absolutely necessary. Quite simply, we're hoping it will mean the death of dodgy cartoon socks bought on a whim the day before Father's Day!"

This year, Father's Day falls on Sunday 21st June. That means there is only a matter of weeks for sons and daughters to find the perfect present for their fathers. Unfortunately, what with work, family life, and other commitments, it can often be hard finding enough time to track down that special something. That's where the Tritons.co.uk gift guide comes into play. This comprehensive Father's Day gift guide quite simply aims to take the strain out of gift hunting. Whether it's cutting edge gadgets for the seriously hi-tech dad, outdoor gear for the dad who never stands still, or a super-trendy shirt for the dad who refuses to dress his age, if it's worth buying, it will most certainly be featured in the Tritons.co.uk Father's Day gift guide.

The Tritons.co.uk company spokesperson added,

"We want to make gift buying a pleasure for the Great British public. What's more, we really want to ensure it's as easy and hassle-free as possible. Spending a bit of cash on a present for your dad should be an enjoyable experience and that's why we've created the Tritons.co.uk Father's Day Gift Guide. Our team of shopping experts selects all the best Father's Day gifts available on the market, and puts them altogether in this handy and easy-to-read guide. We like to think of it as the one-stop spot for all great Father's Day gifts."
