Two Staffordshire charity's are joining up to create a bigger voice for Autism.

The new headquarters at Silverdale Court, Silverdale Road newcastle will house lifeworks Staffordshire and Staffordshire Adults Autistic Society under one roof, the charity's will remain independent however, they will be raising a bigger voice for Autism in Staffordshire by networking and campaigning together for Autism in Staffordshire.

Kevin Healey chairman said:

> "It's great news that we are sharing the same building and together we will become one big voice for autism in Staffordshire".

Louise Zandian CEO of lifeworks said

> "This is a wonderful opportunity for both charity's to raise the profile of the most marginalised minority in the community".
