

UK-based party marketplace launches a unique collection of World BBQ experiences for private parties and celebrations.

Monday 22 August, 2022

Poptop revolutionised private event planning with their unique Live Pricing & Availability model - making party planning easy, instant and fun. Now they're inspiring party planners to level up their events, with the UK's first curated collection of exclusive party experiences.

Travelling has once again proved a little tricky this year. Transport disruption and airport chaos has made getting away from it all almost a bit of a chore.

But you don't have to brave the departure lounge to discover new cultures. Poptop's 2022 collection of authentic world BBQ experiences brings inspired international cuisine to your own home - offering truly unique party catering for you to share with all your favourite people.

Poptop has worked with five of the UK's most talented street food chefs to curate a stunning collection of world BBQ experiences - all available to book for private events. For one special night, you can transform your home into a Hawaiian beach hut bar at sunset, or transport your guests to the steamy streets of a Brazilian festival. All with authentic food cooked by passionate, pro chefs.

Introducing Poptop's 2022 Extraordinary BBQ collection.

We start our journey in the deep south, with A True Taste of U.S BBQ. Made by a pioneering young chef trained in Virginia, you'll enjoy meat sourced from the chef's family butchers - all finished in homemade secret sauces. Can't get enough of Asian cuisine? We've got two Asian inspired BBQ experiences on offer. The first features High-end Pan Asian BBQ and promises age-old family recipes and spectacular presentation. The second is no less inviting, giving everything you love about the classic British garden BBQ a distinctly Indian kick.

For something truly head-turning, check out our Hawaiian-Style Slow Roast Feast - this super hip supplier will even deck out your event like a sunlit Honolulu beach bar. Our Smokehouse Experience offers the chance to enjoy fine dining from a family BBQ, with a decadent 4-course menu from our expert smoke chef. And finally, why not go all out and take your guests to the streets of a Brazilian festival, with delicious Brazilian Churrasco cooked on open flames.

Come and travel the world with Poptop's extraordinary BBQ. The only limit is your imagination.
