

UK'S TOP PRODUCTS 2025 – WINNERS REVEALED!

Thursday 30 January, 2025

The winners of Product of the Year 2025 have been revealed, as decided by 8,000 UK consumers in the annual survey of product innovation that spotlights the A-list of FMCG and beyond.

Beauty, homeware and pet products have dominated the list this year – with two new categories, 'Financial Services' and 'Garden Lifestyle' making their debuts as Product of the Year firsts.

Over two decades, Product of the Year has gained a reputation for putting brands and products on the map, by giving them the recognition they deserve. The iconic logo has an 81% logo recognition among shoppers and can be spotted in all major supermarkets and convenience stores nationwide. Commonly regarded as a seal of approval amid a sea of products on shop shelves, it's a vote of confidence by consumers for consumers.

So, without further ado, here are the winners...

Beauty and wellness shine bright

Natural beauty is a recurring theme among this year's beauty and wellness winners. Dove Advanced Care Body Wash range will leave your skin soft for 24 hours. How? It's all in the science. Enhancing your natural 'glow' is also within NIVEA's wheelhouse, winning an award with the stand-out Serum-Infused Micellar Water Skin Glow – the UK's first serum-infused micellar water. Practising sun safety is key to achieving that radiant glow without damaging your skin, and today that's easier than ever with products like Hawaiian Tropic Hydrating Protection Lotion SPF50 (Product of the Year's 'Suncare' winner). Haircare and grooming winners include Schwarzkopf Oleo Intense (hair colour) and Wilkinson Sword Hydro 5 Razor won by more than a whisker within the 'Male Grooming' category.

Beer and spirits cause a stir

In the 'Beer' corner, Birra Moretti 'Sale Di Mare' is inspired by Italy's coastal regions - delivering a taste experience that makes it a true Product of the Year innovator. Other alcohol category all-stars included Jack Daniel's & Coca-Cola which won the 'Premixed Spirit' category – one of the world's most popular bar orders and Strongbow Strawberry – a much-celebrated addition to the fruity ciders range.

DIY and garden products bring it home...

3M has nailed the formula for 'no-tool' picture hanging. 3M Command™ X-Large Picture Hanging Strips are a simple DIY solution. Storage is another household essential. Keter Signature Garden Storage Box doubles as storage AND seating, adding to the ambience of your home in a beautiful wood effect. That's why it's been crowned champion of Product of the Year's first 'Garden Lifestyle' category.

First-class Fem-Care winners

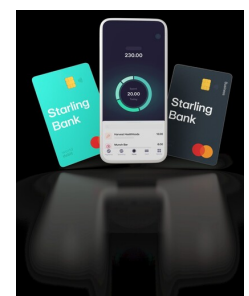

Two menstrual care products – Bodyform Period Pants and the highly absorbent, Always FlexProtect both won Product of the Year awards and TENA Silhouette Incontinence Underwear, made with 30% less bulk than previous TENA Silhouette products, was also a winner.

Food for thought: A veggie victory and a world-first winner

Lurpak® Plant Based that's free from palm oil, preservatives, colouring and other additives took the 'Vegetarian' category and Walkers Extra Flamin' Hot 'bagged' the 'Crisps and Bagged Snacks' category. And if you're on the look-out for the perfect chip look no further than Birds Eye Crispy Chips that was voted top of the 'Chips'!

Innovation in sustainable packaging was also recognised with The British Crisp Co., Mentos Pure Fresh Gum Duo Packs and the deliciously fun and fruity sweet treat, Mentos Discovery all popular winners. And to wrap up the food category Farmfoods Roasted Sliced Chicken – was a deserved winner.
