United Supporters Keep Faith

Tuesday 7 January, 2014

Backers of Manchester United have been active in the betting markets today with David Moyes' side backed down from 1.75 to 1.69 on Betbright to leave the Stadium of Light this evening with a Capital One advantage.

"It's been a rough time for fans and bettors used to winning every game," said Betbright spokesman Brian Farrell. "They got burned again at home to Swansea on Sunday but the feeling seems strong that they will come good tonight."

United are second favourites behind Neighbours Man City to lift the Capital One Cup and give the new manager a trophy in his first season.

Betbright odds to win the Capital One Cup

1.85 Man City
2.50 Man United
11.0 Sunderland
15.0 West Ham United

End

Betbright is all about taking the really good things from online gambling, making them better and getting rid of all of the things that people find annoying.
