Virgin Limited Edition, Sir Richard Branson's luxury collection of award-winning retreats is excited to announce the newest addition to the collection – The Branson Estate on Moskito Island, available for rental from early 2016.

Sir Richard Branson commented on the news: "It's well known that I adore the beautiful and unspoiled British Virgin Islands and I'm thrilled that the new Branson Estate on Moskito Island is joining the Virgin Limited Edition collection. I'm confident that this stunning estate will be a fantastic addition to the rest of the portfolio."

Situated on 125 acres of stunning paradise, surrounded by turquoise Caribbean waters, The Branson Estate features three villas: Headland House, Mangrove Villa and Beach Villa offering a total of 11 bedrooms for at least 22 guests. The three villas are complemented by a Recreation Area on the eastern side of the island where guests can take advantage of a diverse range of activities and dining options all based around Beach House. With a wraparound infinity pool, hot tub, swim-up bar and nearby tennis pavilion, the Beach House is the perfect location to take in the stunning views and socialise with friends and family.

The Branson Estate offers the perfect balance of that 'home away from home' feeling combined with the full range of services you'd expect from a luxury hotel. From kite surfing to stargazing, the Estate will go above and beyond conventional villa rental.

Bookings for The Branson Estate will be available from early 2016
