We Buy Motors Offering Instant Free Car Valuation Service

Wednesday 1 February, 2017

Top used car dealer We Buy Motors notches up impressive performance with its instantaneous car valuation service offered free of cost to car owners. The London based service, with pan-Britain footprints has registered a spurt in the number of car owners using their valuation services.

Statistics released by the DVLA, acronym for Driver and Vehicle Licensing Agency reveal that on an average, around seven million used cars change ownership in the United Kingdom Annually. The market for used cars has expanded with better options for buying good condition or refurbished cars.

To offer car owners the option of knowing the base price of their cars, the website has a simple and easy interface to ascertain the prevailing sale value of the car. Car owners need only enter the registration number and mileage of the car. The software mines information from closed and public domains to evaluate the value based on make, model, year, history etc. In association with market value which is dynamic and changes as per various metrics, the final value of the car is ascertained and displayed instantaneously on screen for the buyers benefit.

We Buy Motors claims the offer is unrivalled and unmatched by competitors across various parameters, such as pricing, services, post-sale formalities and closure.

Saving owners the hassles of having to meet obligatory requirements of the DVLA such as V5C, the team at We Buy Motors assists in fulfilling legal requirements. Additionally, owners whose vehicles have an outstanding loan amount get the burden of loan relieved by the We Buy Motors team that helps in foreclosure formalities. The seamless and efficient bundled services offered have increased the number of car owners who have availed services of We Buy Motors.
