Media:

Car owners in the United Kingdom intending to sell their vehicles have a reason to be re-assured. The accuracy of We Buy Motors' free online car valuation services helps in knowing the sale value of used cars.

The London based service with an extensive network straddling the whole of mainland Britain has been offering its services for the last seven years.

The free service requires the input of just the registration number of the vehicle and the mileage. The software instantaneously comes up with a sale value. This is arrived through various advanced metrics such as make, model, year of purchase, history etc. The mined data is then used in conjunction with prevailing market prices to arrive at an accurate and highly reasonable sale value. This could serve as an index when a car owner plans to sell a used vehicle. Rather than stumbling around for the right index, or grappling with unknown figures, the service helps sellers to know a price from where negotiations can start.

Touted as one of the most reliable and the best in the business, We Buy Motors offers a clean and quick transaction. Within 48 hours of accepting a sale value, the payment is released and the car picked up from doorstep. The documentation team takes care of all post-sale formalities and mandatory V5C submissions. These procedures aimed at reducing a seller's difficulties in disposing a vehicle have made We Buy Motors a trusted and popular service. With around 1,70,000 deals in its records, it is aiming to redefine the market with more transparent and accurate processes, that are dynamic and intuitive.

The market has seen a healthy demand for a second hand car and resellers with extensive networks are better positioned to offer the best prices, pitching We Buy Motors as a service that offers the best value.
