In The Pink

Another great gift, and a UK exclusive from www.foodhq.co.uk is the Picual Extra Virgin Olive Oil from Spain's Cortijo de Suerte Alta. Organic and rich in anti-oxidants, this sweet oil combines the aroma of almonds, herbs and fresh-cut tomatoes. Not only is it one of the healthiest olive oils on the market, its distinct pink bottle makes it more catwalk than kitchen.

Nectar Of The Gods

Steens were the pioneers of manuka honey. This extremely potent, award-winning variety has a 25+, antibacterial activity rating making it a perfect way to restore and protect your health. This amazing honey is 100% natural and unprocessed and can also be applied directly to wounds, to promote quicker, safer healing.

Steens dedicated teams of scientists were the ones who made the breakthrough discovery about the health benefits of manuka honey. Now the company places its hives in the most rural and remote areas of New Zealand, taking care to have minimal impact on local nature. Helicopters are used to place hives and harvest the honey where there are no truck routes.

At £49.99, this 500g jar from www.foodhq.co.uk is not cheap, but rest assured you won't find another honey quite so luxurious and bursting with goodness anywhere in the world.
