We're looking for people in Brighton and the wider area to get involved in our new show, Born and Bread

Wednesday 16 February, 2022

If Brighton was a dining table that stretched out along the sea…

Who sits at the table?

What's on the menu?

And what stories are told across the table?

Brighton People's Theatre is creating a new story for the stage. Born and Bread is about home, belonging, and identity, and we want to meet people from all different backgrounds to bring it to life.

Whether people were born in Brighton or have just arrived, we want to meet them.

Born and Bread will be performed at the Attenborough Centre for the Creative Arts (ACCA) in July 2022. There are lots of ways to be involved.
