The New Arab Unveils 10-Month Investigation on International Crowdfunding Supporting Violent Israeli Settlers

The New Arab has just concluded a comprehensive 10-month investigation into how international non-profit crowdfunding has funnelled resources to violent Israeli settlers since the events of October 7.

Our findings reveal that millions of dollars from taxpayer-funded donations—originating from Western countries and Israel—have been used to purchase military equipment for illegal settlements in the Occupied Palestinian Territories.

This investigation uncovers a disturbing trend: ethnic cleansing in Palestine is being covertly supported through tax-deductible donations from Western liberal democracies, often with the backing of Israeli officials.
