WorkL Names eurochange One of the World's Happiest Workplaces for 2025

News release

21 July 2025

eurochange has been recognised as one of the World's Happiest Workplaces 2025 by WorkL, the world's largest workplace happiness database. It now joins an exclusive list of leading global employers committed to building empowering, positive and people-first workplaces.

Awarded by WorkL, the prestigious accolade is based entirely on employee feedback gathered through WorkL's 'Happy at Work' test. Over 1 million employees nominated more than 100,000 companies for the 2025 cycle, and eurochange stood out with particularly high scores across the following areas:

- "I have a good relationship with my manager"
- "I am trusted to make decisions"
- "I feel proud to work for my organisation"

James Bullock, eurochange's Head of People & Culture, said "Our colleagues are what makes eurochange one of the best foreign exchange providers in the UK, ensuring we deliver on our purpose to do FX better, as the trusted inspirational experts. This recognition reflects the passion in our business to deliver our purpose through strong leadership, a culture of trust and pride, and some fun - core values shared across all our teams.

"We're proud of the journey we're on, listening to our colleagues' feedback to make eurochange an even better place to work. We truly believe engaged colleagues - who are on board with our business aims and our purpose - ensure we can maintain and progress our position within the marketplace"

The WorkL awards are built on a rigorous model developed by behavioural scientists, psychologists and data analysts. It uses a six-step framework to measure employee engagement and wellbeing, including reward and recognition, empowerment and instilling pride.

In being recognised as an employer of choice on a global scale, eurochange joins past winners such as Hollywood Bowl Group, LHV Bank and Happy Eggs USA.
