As
the journey to WynterCon X, Eastbourne’s Comic-Con
with a twist, continues full speed toward
its October destination, announcements are
flying left,
right and centre about guests, exhibits, sponsors and more!

Starting with celebrity guests announcements. This years line-up
boasts an incredible roster featuring:

Chris
Barrie
- Red Dwarf, The Brittas
Empire, Tomb
Raider.

Colin
Baker - Doctor Who’s sixth incarnation.

Clive
Mantle - Alien 3, Superman
IV, Game
Of Thrones,

Sandeep
Mohan
- Star Wars the Force Awakens, Justice League.

Carla
Mendonça
– My Parents Are Aliens, Motor Mouth.

Jon
Campling – Harry Potter, The Northman

That's not all. WynterCon X is also playing host to some amazing exhibits, interactive attractions and photo opportunities this October. So far they have announced a full size and accurate replica of the iconic Ghostbusters vehicle, Ecto-1, and Johnny (number) 5 from the classic 1986 movie, ‘Short Circuit’. A plethora of hand crafted replica props from the movie ‘The Labyrinth’ and even two animatronic baby dragons that are over a whole two metres long!

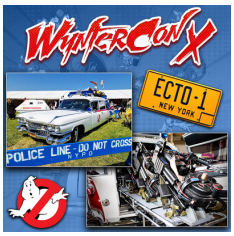

Another
huge highlight is the return of the infamous Cosplay
Hall. An entire hall dedicated to the craft of costuming with it’s very own displays, photo opportunities, stage area and adjudicated
competition
for anyone to enter (and even features
prizes for the respective winners).
All made possible by the philanthropic,
local broadband provider,
Lightning
Fibre.

Last
but not least, the Worksop Hall, in partnership with Sky Creative Sussex, WynterCon’s Charity Partner. This will be filled to the brim with educational workshop tasters based around the charity values including arts, crafts, computer programming and, as always, much more.

If
that isn't enough to sink your teeth into, there will also be a fully featured trade floor filled with hand picked vendors of all varieties including toys, homewares, sweets and treats, prop weapons, table top gaming and accessories, jewellery and so much more.

Join
the fun and festivities this October 14th
- 15th
at the Eastbourne
Winter Garden. Full details and tickets can be found on the official WynterCon Website www.WynterCon.org.
