XRP Hot Spot: With the support of GENIUS Act, IOTA Miner opens a new era of smart cloud mining and realizes daily passive income

Wednesday 23 July, 2025

At a pivotal moment when the global crypto industry is embracing compliance and sustainability, the GENIUS Act has arrived—bringing policy support and tax incentives to quality projects, and sparking a fresh wave of wealth opportunities.

IOTA Miner stands at the forefront of this movement: an intelligent cloud mining platform designed for mainstream cryptocurrencies like XRP, BTC, and ETH. With no need for mining hardware and zero entry barriers, users can effortlessly enjoy daily payouts—benefiting from a compliant, transparent, green, and efficient source of passive income.

What is IOTA Miner?
IOTA Miner is a smart cloud mining platform serving global users, supporting mainstream cryptocurrencies such as BTC, ETH, and XRP. Without the need to purchase mining hardware or possess technical expertise, users can automatically receive daily on-chain income.

By integrating AI-powered scheduling with eco-friendly computing resources, IOTA Miner enables users to select mining contracts online while the system handles mining, settlement, and income distribution seamlessly—making passive income truly low-threshold and low-risk.

Moreover, IOTA Miner aligns with the industry's shift toward compliance and sustainability, and benefits from the policy incentives of the GENIUS Act, allowing users to mine and earn with greater confidence and peace of mind.

IOTA Miner's advantages:

?Register now and enjoy gifts

Sign up for a $15 welcome bonus and a stable income of $0.6 per day.

?Legal and compliant, safe mining

The GENIUS Act provides clearer legal boundaries and incentive policies for cloud mining, allowing users to invest more confidently.

?Green computing power, low-carbon and environmentally friendly

Using low-power mining machines and intelligent scheduling, it fully responds to the green energy direction advocated by the bill.

?Transparent income, daily settlement

After purchasing the contract, the income will be automatically credited to the account every day, and you can withdraw it at any time, which is flexible and convenient.

?Shared ecology, global layout

IOTA Miner is building a global node network to allow more users to share the blockchain dividends.
