

YMCA THEATRE HOST THE MOST CRACKING CHRISTMAS SHOW AROUND

Wednesday 20 November, 2019

Entertainers new and old at the YMCA Theatre come together to present Christmas Cracker – a festive variety show for all the family.

The annual show from YMCA Productions bursts onto the YMCA Theatre stage from Friday 29th November to Sunday 1st December and is sure to get its audiences into the Christmas Spirit.

Filled with music, song, dance and comedy, this show promises to make you smile, cry and belly laugh from start to finish.

Joining the YMCA Productions Cast, which includes members of all ages, will be special guests such as Rowlies Academy of Dance, Yorkshire Coast School of Ballet and the YMCA Band.

There will also be appearance from local singers including Jamie & Roger Maughan, James Aconley, Chloe Wright and Charlie Simon-Shaw accompanied by dancer Bex Wainwright.

Director, Katie Doubtfire says “Christmas Cracker is all about bringing Festive cheer to audiences. It is a showcase of Scarborough talent and allows us to spread some festive joy whilst providing the audience with heart-warming moments and all out belly laughs all in one Christmassy, sparkly show!” She adds “The Big Man himself may even make an extra special guest appearance...”

Christmas Cracker really does have something for everyone, a fun-filled festive extravaganza. This show really is the start of Christmas at the YMCA and the cast and crew are very excited to share the Christmas spirit with their community.

The production has been produced by Graham Ibbotson, and created by Hayley Green (Director), Katie Doubtfire (Director, Choreographer and Comedy Coach), Juliette Scarborough (Singing Coach) and Evie McGlinchey (Assistant Singing Coach).

Performances are on Friday 29th and Saturday 30th November at 7:30pm with a matinee performance at 2pm on Sunday 1st December.

Tickets are £10 for adults, £9 concessions and £32 for a family (2 adults & 2 children). Party Rates for 10 people or more are just £7 a ticket.
